Fair Housing Rights & Responsibilities

Fair Housing

In 1965, state legislation was enacted to prohibit discrimination in the rental or purchase of homes and in other housing related activities. All persons in the protected classes have the right to live wherever they can afford to buy a home or rent an apartment.

The law states that it is unlawful on the basis of race, color, sex, national origin, ancestry, religion, disability, military status or familial status to do any of the following: Age is not a protected class in housing.

- Discriminate in the terms, conditions or privileges of selling or renting.
- Refuse to rent, sell, negotiate, finance or insure housing accommodations.
- Represent to any person that housing is unavailable for sale or rental when it is available.
- Refuse to lend money for the purchase, construction, repair, rehabilitation or maintenance of housing accommodations or residential property.
- Coerce, intimidate, threaten or interfere with the exercise or enjoyment of housing rights.
- Make any inquiry or elicit information or keep records concerning a person's protected class.
- Print, publish or circulate any statement or advertisement which would indicate a preference or limitation.

Protections for Persons with Disabilities:

If you or someone associated with you has a physical or mental disability, a record of such a disability or are regarded as having such a disability, your landlord may not:

Refuse to allow you to make reasonable modifications to your dwelling or common areas, at your expense, if necessary for the disabled person to use the housing, OR

Refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices or services if necessary for the disabled person to use the housing, OR

Design and construct covered dwellings that are inaccessible.

If you suspect that there was housing discrimination, report it!

File a complaint with your local OCRC office either in person, by telephone or on our website (www.crc.ohio.gov). Charges must be filed within one year from the date of harm. All services are free of charge.

In the meantime, make immediate detailed notes of your experience, including the date, time, name of agent or landlord, and what you saw or were told.

Collect and keep copies of advertising, letters or other relevant written correspondence.
