

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT FOR NON-PROFITS

Presented by the Ohio Development Services Agency and the Coalition on Homelessness and Housing in Ohio

A key component of non-profit sustainability is the commitment of the staff and governance board to strong financial management and planning. The Financial Management for Non-Profits training will impart knowledge and proficiency in financial management concepts and practices including:

- Budgets
- Asset management
- Accounting
- Ensuring compliance with professional regulations and standards

PRESENTER

Teresa (Terry) Edwards, CPA
Senior External Auditor
Ohio Development Services Agency

Terry has been working with not-for-profit organizations for over 30 years. She began her involvement as a Fiscal Officer and Executive Director of a rural Community Action Agency. Using this experience, Terry moved on to be a program compliance officer for the Office of Community Assistance. She is now the Senior External Auditor within ODSA. Terry's primary duties include financial compliance audits of federal and state grants awarded to not-for-profit organizations and units of governments. She has also facilitated a variety of workshops and training events at the state and national level.
