Description: (Session 2)

Identifying and Meeting the Unique Needs of Students Experiencing Homelessness in Rural Ohio

We recognize that the rural landscape of Ohio presents unique challenges to meeting the needs of students experiencing homelessness. This session provides an overview of the homelessness challenges in rural areas, specifically in transportation, isolation, poverty, access, and lack of affordable housing. The session concludes with solutions focused approaches, resources, and partnerships vital to ensuring students receive the wrap-around supports needed to achieve goals and access opportunities. Joining our discussion is Chapin Hall at the University of Chicago, the National Center for Homeless Education, and local rural districts and homelessness providers!
