Strategies for Addressing Discrimination: Housing Providers' Use of Criminal Records

July 20, 2022 | 2:00 - 4:00 PM ET

You still have a chance to learn from experts about the role of criminal records in tenant screening processes and how to identify discriminatory practices against potential tenants. Register today to join in on the conversation sponsored by the National Fair Housing Training Academy (NFHTA) in collaboration with HUD's Office of General Counsel (OGC).

In this session, you can expect to learn about:

- How discriminatory uses of criminal records may violate the Fair Housing Act and other civil rights laws
- Acceptable evidence used in investigations related to the use of criminal records
- Best practices for housing providers' handling of criminal records in the tenant screening process

Who should attend?

Are you passionate about fair housing for all? Are you affiliated with Fair Housing Initiatives Program (FHIP) organizations, Fair Housing Assistance Program (FHAP) agencies, legal services providers, or other interested fair housing partners? If so, this forum is for you!
