

Training Announcement: Helping Youth Build/Re-Build Meaningful Supports

Purpose of this Listserv Message: This message announces an upcoming virtual training for homeless assistance providers about Helping Youth Build/Re-Build Meaningful Supports.

Target Audience: All homeless assistance providers in the state of Ohio, specifically those serving youth.

Background Information

Youth and young adults experiencing homelessness can often benefit from services designed to aid them in building and reviving a meaningful network of supports. This session Helping Youth Build/Re-Build Meaningful Supports will help you understand how to assist youth and young adults ages 14-24 in identifying and maintaining safe supports. La’Keshia Copeland from Montgomery County will provide basic information around youth engagement, the role of the service provider, and how to measure success, using lecture and discussion.

Training Objectives:

- Understand perspectives around safe and meaningful supports for youth and young adults
- Learn how to support youth and young adults in developing support networks
- Explore strategies for centering youth in evaluating safe and meaningful supports

Dissemination: Program Managers, team leaders and staff.

Who should attend: This training will be open to all system partners specifically those serving youth.
