Runaway and Homeless Youth - Prevention Demonstration Program

The Administration for Children and Families (ACF), Administration on Children, Youth and Families (ACYF), Family and Youth Services Bureau (FYSB) announces the release of the Fiscal Year 2024 Runaway and Homeless Youth-Prevention Demonstration Program (RHY-PDP) Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO).

Ending youth homelessness requires both addressing the immediate needs of youth who are experiencing homelessness and, just as importantly, preventing youth from becoming homeless in the first place.

The purpose of RHY-PDP is to address the second requirement, prevention. Projects we fund increase protective factors and give youth, young adults, and their families the resources they need to avoid homelessness. Through this funding opportunity, we will award up to 10 cooperative agreements to plan and implement prevention services designed specifically for youth and young adults who are at risk of experiencing homelessness or housing instability and their families.

Projects funded through this program prevent youth and young adults under the age of 22 from experiencing homelessness. They develop partnerships to accomplish the following goals:

- Identify young people at risk of experiencing homelessness
- Design and develop a comprehensive community-based plan to prevent youth homelessness
- Promote equity in the delivery of services
- Implement prevention services for youth and young adults who are at risk of homelessness and their families
- Evaluate the implementation of prevention services and interventions

Cooperative agreements awarded under this announcement will have a start date of September 30, 2024, and will be for a 36-month project period.
