Tax Webinar for Youth

Tax Tips for Young People who have Self-Employment Income or a 1099

Hello!

Are you a young person who has self-employment/1099 income? Do you receive a stipend for serving on a Youth Action Board or as a “lived experience” consultant? Do you regularly receive gift cards for participation in youth homelessness programs? Or maybe you have a side hustle or do gig work or freelance work to make ends meet?

If so, please join us for a webinar on self-employment taxes on MONDAY, MARCH 11TH from 3-4:30pm EST! Figuring out how (and if!) to file taxes when you have this kind of income can be very confusing and you may be entitled to certain deductions that can reduce your tax burden and ensure that your income and work is counted towards future benefits.

We will have Jose Santiago from the IRS join us to walk through what you need to know so you can file your taxes with confidence this year and learn tips for recordkeeping, when you might need to file quarterly taxes, and other information to help you in the future.
